BRUGES - OUDENAARDE

Dear cycling fan,

A new cycling High Mass is approaching. And what a one! We are already looking forward to the warm welcome in Bruges, which is accompanied by so many memories. That the Tour of Flanders is a party, we don't need to tell you. But, this year, there is something extra to celebrate. Because the women are riding in their 20th edition.

Sunday 2 April has undoubtedly been marked in your agenda for a long time, we have no doubt about that. To make sure that the day turns out to be just as fantastic as it is in your head right now, we have gathered together all the practical information for you in this fan guide.

Feel like cycling yourself? As always, that is possible on the day before the pros during We Ride Flanders (1/04). But did you know that you can also take to the gravel bike again this summer during Flanders Gravel Koppenberg from 30 June to 2 July? Or, for the mountain bikers among you: in the weekend of 7, 8 and 9 July, Oudenaarde is our epicentre for an MTB three-day event right across the Flemish Ardennes.

But, for now, it is the Tour of Flanders that is the order of the day. Read on quickly and until 2 April! Lots of viewing, reading and cycling pleasure!

Yours sportingly,

Flanders Classics

Bruges

Programme

For the first time since 2016 the Tour of Flanders returns to Bruges. Tom Boonen, Fabian Cancellara, Johan Museeuw, Peter Van Petegem, Those are the names of the winners that we associate with Bruges. The peloton has changed in the meantime, but the love between Bruges and Flanders' Finest is still there. Come and experience it for yourself on Sunday 2 April! Or even a day earlier...

PROGRAMME

Bruges will already be ready the day before the start of De Ronde with two free performances on the Grote Markt. A double party in Bruges!

Saturday 1 April

On the day before the race, it's already party time on the Markt in Bruges. Two free performances on the eve of the De Ronde are going to set the city alight.

20:00: Soulsister

22:00: Level Six

Entrance is free and no registration is required. All you need to bring with you is a good mood, your dancing legs and a big smile.

On Saturday morning, the Grote Markt is also the starting point for the thousands of cycling amateur cyclists who are riding their own Tour of Flanders. More info on verideflanders.be.

Sunday 2 April

There is also music on Sunday morning, but then it is the riders who will be playing a leading role on the Grote Markt in Bruges.

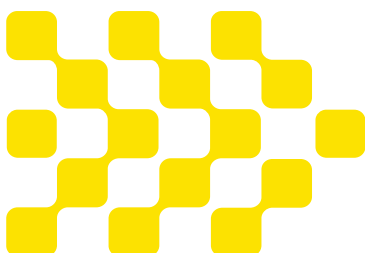

8:15: Start team presentation Men Elite with Linde Merckpoel, Max Vryens and DJ ProudMich

8:30: First team on the podium

9:35: End of presentation

10:00: Start of race

HOW TO GET THERE

On foot

From the station of Bruges it is a walk of about 1.6 kilometres to the Grote Markt.

By bike

Park your bike in one of the spacious bike parks in the vicinity:

- > Under 't Zand
- > Under the Concertgebouw
- > Under the Markt (Sint-Amandsstraat)
- > At the station

Do not forget to bring your lock with you so that you can leave your bike safely behind.

By train

The distance between the station and the Grote Markt is about 1.6 km (+/- 15 min walk). What is the best route? Head towards the centre and walk through the Albert-I Park towards het Zand. This is in the direction of the Concertgebouw. From het Zand you walk via the Zuidzandstraat and Steenstraat towards the Grote Markt.

By bus

The stop at the Concertgebouw brings you the closest to the event. Walk via Zuidzandstraat and Steenstraat to the Grote Markt (750m – 9 min walk). Please note: take into account diversions and network delays.

By car

Carpool as much as possible. The following car parks are recommended:

- > Oysterparking in Bruges
(near the station building – Sint-Michiels side – GPS address: Koning Albert-I-laan 4277, 8200 Bruges – 175 places)
- > Parking Station
(near the station building – centre side – GPS address: Chantrellstraat 42/62, 8000 Bruges - 1466 places)
- > Parking Ezelstraat
(GPS address: Hugo Losschaertstraat 5 – 139 places – 850m from the station - 9 min walk)
- > Randparking Vrijdingslaan
(Vrijdingslaan - 170 places - 1.3 km - 15 min walk)
- > Randparking Lodewijk Coiseaukaai
(Lodewijk Coiseaukaai - 75 places – 2.1 km – 25 min walk)
- > Randparking Magdalena
(Magdalenastraat - 198 places – 1,6 km – 20 min walk)

*paid parking

EXPLORE BRUGES

The historic city centre (recognised by Unesco as a World Heritage Site) is characterised by its many waterways, the Bruges Canals and the numerous monumental buildings within a stone's throw of one other. The picturesque, romantic, medieval setting has made Bruges a top international destination for many years.

But there is more behind the historic façades. The city has an extensive range of cultural delights to offer. It honours its history with the Flemish Primitives, glimpses back at its rich past, but is also creating a vibrant future. The Burgundian lifestyle is maintained in a contemporary fashion. Bruges is a first-rate gastronomic destination, as illustrated by its many culinary stars and mentions in culinary guides.

Bruges is ambitious and progressive. The port of Zeebrugge is an easily accessible, international player and an important economic factor. It strives for innovation and sustainability, among other things by opting for wind energy. The City is continuing this innovative approach and initiating it in other sectors. Bruges, for instance, has a Sports Innovation Campus, where practical research is carried out together with educational institutions and the higher authorities into innovation in sport and the stimulation of sufficient physical activity in the wider population.

The bicycle represents an excellent and sustainable means of achieving that fitness goal. The City encourages cycle use through well-designed cycle facilities, such as guarded underground cycle parking facilities and public cycle pumps. There is a Green Cycling Belt around the city. Numerous new cycle paths, bridges and tunnels have been built in recent years to create new, safe connections. The city derives additional inspiration from international cooperation.

YOUR TRADITION? CYCLING OUR TRADITION?

HIGHEST QUALITY, LOWEST PRICE

You don't need us to tell you how rich in tradition cycle racing is. But did you know that we at Lidl also have a proud tradition? We like to keep things simple. At Lidl you'll find the highest quality at the lowest price, for all our products. And that's the way it's been for over 25 years.

Finish Oudenaarde

Programme

As usual, the finish of the Tour of Flanders is on the Minderbroedersstraat in Oudenaarde. But there is more to experience there. For instance, the city in the heart of the Flemish Ardennes is the epicentre for the jubilee of our women's race. The 20th edition for Lotte Kopecky and co, that has to be celebrated, right? Discover the full programme in Oudenaarde below!

SATURDAY 1 APRIL

One day before the pros, the amateur cyclists can explore the Tour of Flanders course for themselves. Their Tour of Flanders also finishes under the official finish arch. Thus, Oudenaarde salutes the We Ride Flanders participants for a whole day.

SUNDAY 2 APRIL

12:00: Women Elite team presentation with Ruben van Gucht and Ine Beyen on the Markt

13:00: Opening fan zone at the finish (until 19:00)

13:30: Start race Women Elite on the Markt

16:29: Earliest anticipated finish Men Elite at the Minderbroedersstraat

17:30: Earliest anticipated finish Women Elite at the Minderbroedersstraat

More about the programme in Oudenaarde? Surf to derondeinoudenaarde.be.

HOW TO GET THERE

The best way to get to Oudenaarde is on foot, by bike or via public transport. Thus not by car, since access in Oudenaarde will be disrupted by the finish line in the Minderbroedersstraat.

By bike or on foot

On Sunday 2 April, Oudenaarde Markt is only accessible to pedestrians and cyclists. If you choose to cycle, you can leave your bicycle in one of the bicycle parking facilities in the centre of Oudenaarde. Be sure to bring your lock to secure your bike and leave it behind safely.

By train

Oudenaarde station is less than 1 km (10 min walk) from the Markt in Oudenaarde. Avoid parking problems and travel by train to the finish of the Ronde van Vlaanderen.

On Sunday 2 April, the NMBS/SNCB provides three additional trains to take you to and from the Tour of Flanders:

- > From Gent-Sint-Pieters to Oudenaarde and Ronse: 8:56 and 11:00
- > From Ronse to Gent-Sint-Pieters: 18:50 (19:05 in Oudenaarde)

Consult the timetable here.

By car

The centre of Oudenaarde is not accessible by car. You can park at the Bruwaan industrial zone (parking shuttle bus stop A) or in the NMBS/SNCB car park at the back of the station (exit open until 1:00).

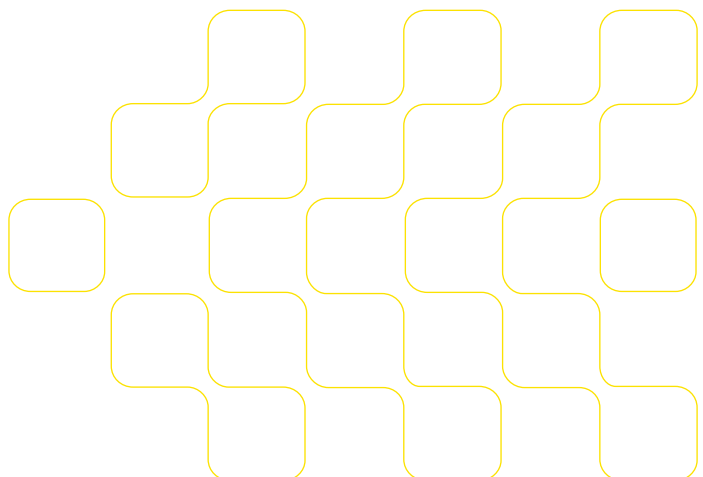

Check derondeinoudenaarde.be for the latest traffic information.

Wheelchair users

We work with Inter. Do you have questions?

Then contact Babette Deprez: babette.deprez@inter.vlaanderen.

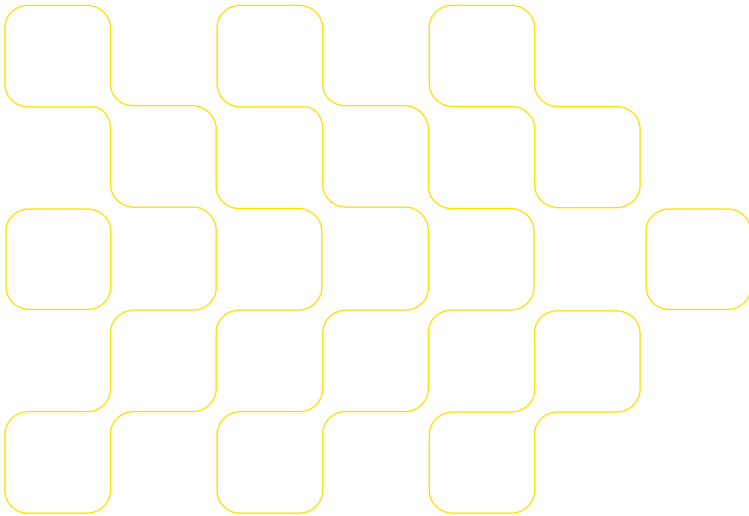

Parking for the disabled is provided at the Smallendam car park in Oudenaarde. Send an e-mail in advance to deronde@oudenaarde.be so that we can reserve your spot and inform you of the directions.

EXPLORE OUDENAARDE

Oudenaarde, the heart of the Flemish Ardennes and traditionally the finish line of Flanders' Finest for several years now. In the 'Centre Tour of Flanders' museum in Oudenaarde a captivating exhibition is dedicated to the high day of the year and to the other spring classics. If you want to enjoy a local beer from Oudenaarde it is best to opt for brown beers such as Cnudde, Ename, Felix or Roman. Unlike others, these beers are still brewed on Oudenaarde soil. Fancy indulging in a little culture? Besides the race, the town hall is the pride of the city, but the Kerselare pilgrimage site and the oldest carillon bells in St Walburga's Church are also worth a visit.

Fan zones

Want to go wild when Tadej Pogačar conjures up another gear on the Oude Kwaremont? Or scream Lotte Kopecky to the top on the Paterberg? These are just two of the thousands of fantastic scenarios that you can experience from the front row on Sunday 2 April. The following are the fan zones of the Tour of Flanders 2023:

FAN ZONE KOPPENBERG

The Koppenberg is traditionally the opener of the finale of the Tour of Flanders. Both the men and women begin the last 45 km towards Oudenaarde from there. Those who know the Koppenberg know that there is always sporting spectacle to be had on the Bult van Melden. Perhaps you have never seen racing on this iconic Flemish hill? See you there!

Opening hours: 10:00 to 19:00

FAN ZONE OUDE KWAREMONT

With 3 passages for the men and 1 passage for the women, the Oude Kwaremont is the epicentre of the hill zone, whichever way you look at it. A convivial fan village, lots of atmosphere and thousands of supporters who, like you, enjoy a festive day of racing, make the Oude Kwaremont a once in a lifetime experience that repeats itself every year.

Opening hours: 10:00 to 19:00

FAN ZONE PATERBERG

For the ultimate finale, the Paterberg is the place to be. There where last year Pogačar and Van der Poel and Van Vleuten and Kopecky raced uphill, wheel to wheel. This is where you can watch from the front row again this year. With 13 km to go to the finish, you may see first-hand who is on the way to victory in Oudenaarde.

Opening hours: 10:00 to 19:00

FAN ZONE OUDENAARDE

Already spoilt for choice? Well, we are adding another fan zone. As they say, the race is only ridden on the finishing line and that line is in Oudenaarde. If, together with us, you want to welcome the winners with open arms and experience the party live at the podium ceremony, there is only one option: come to the Minderbroedersstraat in Oudenaarde!

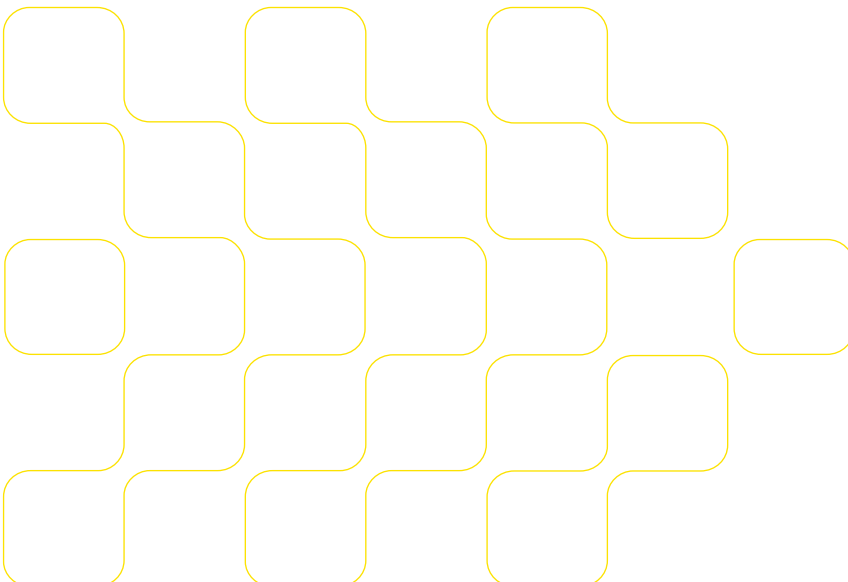

Opening hours: 13:00 to 19:00

DÉMARRAGE

Race and party, the two go hand in hand. Since last year, race and festival are also a golden duo. Oudenaarde is preparing for the second edition of Démarrage. DJs who set the dance floor on fire, the race on a big screen and a fantastic location near the finish. Hurry up, because there are not many tickets still available! Don't forget to book your bus ticket from Ghent, Kortrijk, Waregem, Roeselare, Bruges or Brussels. Then your journey home is already arranged!

RACE INFORMATION

The Tour of Flanders returns to Bruges this year for the first time since 2016. This means that the route to the Flemish Ardennes will be a little different for the men. As in past years, the women also begin their 20th edition in Oudenaarde.

New this year

The finale is identical. This means that for both the men and the women, the Koppenberg will herald the decisive phase of the race. Via the Steenbeekdries, Taaiberg and Kruisberg-Hotond, it is then on to the ultimate Ronde van Vlaanderen duo: Oude Kwaremont and Paterberg.

To get to that hill zone, the men do however take a different route this year. The starting shot will be heard in Bruges, after which the riders travel first through the province of West Flanders taking in brand new 'Dorpen van de Ronde'. From Beernem, the peloton heads first towards Aalter. After that, it is Izegem, where the Belgian National Championships will also be held on 25 June. When entering the province of East Flanders and on the way to the Flemish Ardennes, the fourth and final 'Dorp van de Ronde' awaits: Zulte.

Click below for the festivities in the Dorpen van de Ronde and find out what's in store below.

WEAR IT IN THE SUN, LOVE IT IN THE RAIN.

Frightening clouds are on sight, but you start your session nonetheless. A few kilometers into the ride sky opens up and sun pops out. As temperature rises, body moisture gets trapped and you start thinking that wearing your best jacket was the worst decision of your life.

We developed our Fiandre collection with this concern in mind: provide protective layers to face any weather conditions at high intensity effort. You'll be wearing these garments on a chilly day with bright sky, in a spring storm, when summer comes to an unexpected end. You pick!

ON THE EDGE OF YOUR SEAT

There are two sorts of cycling fan. Those who want to smell, feel and experience the race. And then there is the camp that swears by 'You can't see the race any better than from your own armchair'. Good news, because the Tour of Flanders is a day-long race on TV.

The men's race will be broadcast in full as from 9:55. Their finish is expected to be at around 16:30 at the earliest. The women's race can be watched live on television as from 15:00. They finish after the men, at the earliest around 17:30.

DISCOVER THE REGION

Apart from the race, there is also plenty to experience on and around the course of Flanders' Finest. Read our commentary guide to all the cultural, historical and fascinating places that the Tour of Flanders visits from Bruges to Oudenaarde.

Keep the environment clean

Are you coming to Oudenaarde on Sunday 2/04? Then bring your old mobile phone(s), hand them in at the Proximus stand and receive a nice reward! This reward can be a Bevers & Bevers voucher worth EUR 5, or a discount code for participating in one of the races of the Proximus Cycling Challenge or the spring classics of the Continental Classics Tour. Collect up to five devices and put your greenest foot forward together with Proximus!

Fiets leasen? Da's zo geklikt!

KBC Fietsleasing zet in op digitalisering en vereenvoudiging.

Fietsleasing heeft de wind mee. KBC Fietsleasing telt al meer dan 25 000 fietsers en daar komen er elke dag bij. Als marktleider van fietsleasing in België blijven we ook innoveren. Fietsers krijgen de keuze uit steeds meer merken en types, van plooi-fiets tot speed pedelec. Bovendien maakt de toenemende digitalisering de leaseprocedure almaar eenvoudiger, voor werknemers en ondernemingen. Offerte aanvragen, fiets bestellen of laten onderhouden bij de dealers, hulp invoeren in geval van pech... Het loopt allemaal via de handige webtoepassing KBC MoveSmart en MoveSmart in de KBC Mobile app. Wil je jouw collega's ook op de fiets?
